

Easter Day

The Anglican Parish of Greater Hastings encompassing St Peter's, Riverslea & St Matthew's, Hastings
Christian communities in the heart of Hastings

10am at St Peter's, 2024

Lighting of the Easter Candle

We stand as the priest greets us.

Dear friends in Christ, on this most holy day
when our Saviour Jesus Christ passed from death to life,
we gather with all the Church throughout the world.
Through light and word, through water, bread, and wine
we celebrate the new life that Christ shares with us.

The priest lights the Easter Candle and prays:

Redeeming God, source of life and light,
you made this most holy day
to shine with the brightness of your one true light;
bless this new flame,
and set us aflame with the fire of your love,
and bring us to the radiance of your heavenly glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

May the light of Christ, rising in glory,
banish all darkness from our hearts and minds.

The light of Christ.
Thanks be to God.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.
HE IS RISEN INDEED. ALLELUIA!

A hymn is sung.

As we rejoice in the gift of Christ's risen presence we say:

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to God's people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:

have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

We sit

Lord Jesus, you raise us to new life:
Lord, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you forgive our sins:
Christ, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you feed us with the living bread:
Lord, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

In silence before God,
we confess our sins.

Silence

God forgives you.
Be at peace.

The peace of Christ rule in our hearts.
The word of Christ dwell in us richly.

Living Christ, you are risen from the dead!
Love reigns!
You are life stronger than death;
raise our eyes to see you as the new day dawns;
for the glory of your holy name. Amen.

The Proclamation

The Readings

A reading from Acts 10:34-43

Peter realises that the good news of the gospel is meant for all people, and he proclaims the crucified and risen Jesus

After the reading

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Thanks be to God. Alleluia.

Psalm 118: 1-2, 14-24

We give thanks to you O Lord for you are gracious:
and your love endures for ever.

Let the house of Israel say:
'God's love endures for ever.'

The Lord is my strength and my defence:
and has become my deliverer.

There are shouts of joy and deliverance
in the tents of the righteous:
the right hand of the Lord does mighty things.

The right hand of the Lord raises up:
the right hand of the Lord does mighty things.

I shall not die but live:
and proclaim what the Lord has done.

The Lord indeed has punished me:
but did not give me over to death.

Open to me the gates of the temple:
that I may enter and give thanks to the Lord.

This is the gate of the Lord:
through which the righteous shall enter.

I will thank you because you have answered me:
and you have become my deliverer.

The stone which the builders rejected:
has become the head of the corner.

This is the Lord's doing and it is marvellous in our eyes.

This is the day which the Lord has made:
let us rejoice and be glad in it.

A reading from 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Paul reminds the Corinthians of his basic proclamation concerning the Lord's resurrection.

After the reading

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Thanks be to God. Alleluia.

The Gospel Hymn

We remain standing.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

I am the first and the last, says the Lord, and the living one;
I was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

The Holy Gospel according to Mark 16:1-8

Praise and glory to God.

Three women disciples first learn of Jesus' resurrection.

After the reading:

This is the Gospel of Christ.

Praise to Christ the Word. Alleluia.

The Sermon

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

As we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead, we remember that through the Easter mystery we have died and been buried with him in Baptism, so that we may rise with him to a new life within the family of his Church. I invite us to renew the promises made at Baptism, affirming our allegiance to Christ, and our rejection of all that is evil.

Do you believe in God the Father?

I believe in God the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Those who are baptised are called to worship and serve God. From the beginning, believers have continued in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers.

Will you commit yourself to this life?

I will, with God's help.

Will you forgive others as you are forgiven?

I will, with God's help.

Will you seek to love your neighbour as yourself,
and strive for peace and justice?

I will, with God's help.

Will you accept the cost of following Jesus Christ
in your daily life and work?

I will, with God's help.

With the whole Church will you proclaim by word and action
the Good News of God in Christ?

I will, with God's help.

Praise God who made heaven and earth,
whose promise endures for ever.

We thank you God for your love in all creation, especially for your gift of water to sustain, refresh and cleanse all life.

We thank you that through the waters of baptism
you cleanse us, renew us by your Spirit and raise us to new life.

In the new covenant we are made members of your Church and share in your eternal kingdom.

Therefore, in joyful obedience to Christ,
we celebrate our fellowship in him through faith.

We pray that all who pass through the waters of baptism may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom, thanksgiving and honour, power and might, be to our God for ever and ever. Amen!

A hymn is sung as the priest sprinkles us with the baptismal waters.

Almighty Father,
grant that we your children may never be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified,
but continue his faithful servants to our lives' end;
through Jesus Christ our Redeemer. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Let us pray for the Church and for the world, giving thanks for God's goodness.

We sit.

Praise and honour to you Lord Jesus,
for you have triumphed gloriously.
We pray for the world:
for those in positions of authority,
especially those who have the power to bring peace
to those places inflicted with conflict.
Roll away the stones of hatred and animosity.
Transform us with your spirit of justice and peace that all people may share in the freedom of your risen life.
Risen God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Praise and honour to you Lord Jesus,
for you have cancelled the power of sin.
We pray for the worldwide church:
for those who minister within our parish of Greater Hastings,
and all who renew their baptismal promises today.

Roll away the stones of discord and unbelief.
Transform your church with your spirit of wisdom and truth that we may witness to your risen life.
Risen God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Praise and honour to you Lord Jesus,
for you show us the power of love.
We pray for the communities in which we live and work:
for our families, friends and all whom we love;
for those who are forgotten and undervalued.
Roll away the stones of apathy and selfishness.
Transform our lives with your spirit of love and forgiveness that we may share in the joy of your risen life.
Risen God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Praise and honour to you Lord Jesus,
for you bring us hope when all seems lost.
We pray for those who suffer:
for the lonely and friendless;
for the sick and sorrowing and all who care for them.
Roll away the stones of pain and despair.
Transform the lives of all who suffer with your comfort that they may share in the hope of your risen life.
Risen God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Praise and honour to you Lord Jesus,
for you have broken the bonds of death.
We give thanks for your people of every age
who have followed you in trust and love.
Transform our lives, by your risen power, that we, with all your saints, may share in the glory of your risen life.
Risen God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

The Peace

The risen Christ came and stood among his disciples and said,
Peace be with you!

Then they were glad when they saw the Lord. Alleluia!

The peace of the risen Christ be always with you.

And also with you. Alleluia!

The Preparation of the Gifts

The Offertory hymn.

To you, Lord, belongs the greatness,
and the power, and the glory,
and the victory and the majesty.

All that is in the heavens and the earth is yours,
and of your own we give you.

The Great Thanksgiving

We remain standing, though feel free to sit if needs be.

The Lord is here.

God's Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to offer thanks and praise.

Honour and worship are indeed your due,
our Lord and our God, through Jesus Christ,
for you created all things;
by your will they were created,
and for your glory they have their being.

In your loving purpose you chose us
before the foundation of the world to be your people.
Above all we give you thanks and praise
for your grace in sending Jesus Christ,
when we had turned away from you.

In your Son you suffered with us and for us,
calling us to freedom and holiness.
You raised him to life triumphant over death;
you exalted him in glory.
By his victory over death,
the reign of sin is ended,
a new age has dawned,
a broken world is restored
and we are made whole once more.

Therefore with people of every nation, tribe and language,
with the whole Church on earth and in heaven,
joyfully we give you thanks and say:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

All glory and honour to you, God of grace, for you gave your only Son Jesus Christ once for all on the cross to be the one perfect sacrifice for the sin of the world, that all who believe in him might have eternal life.
The night before he died, he took bread,
and when he had given you thanks,
he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup,
and when he had given you thanks,
he gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you,
for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins;
do this as often as you drink it,
to remember me.

Therefore heavenly Father,
in this sacrament of the suffering and death of your Son,
we now celebrate the wonder of your grace
and proclaim mystery of our faith:

Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come in glory.

Redeemer God, rich in mercy, infinite in goodness, we were far off until you brought us near and our hands are empty until you fill them.
As we eat this bread and drink this wine,
through the power of your Holy Spirit
feed us with your heavenly food,
renew us in your service, unite us in Christ,
as we offer you our songs of everlasting praise.

Blessing, honour and glory be yours,
here and everywhere
now and forever. Amen.

The Communion

The risen Christ is in our midst, and so we pray, singing:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

The priest breaks the bread in silence

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body,
for we all share the one bread.

Come God's people;
come to receive Christ's heavenly food.

The priest and people receive communion.

Prayer After Communion

Song after communion

Christ, you are risen from the dead.

We are risen with you.

May our life never deny this eternal life,
this peace and hope and joy.

Praise and glory to the God of life
who is stronger than all kinds of death. Alleluia!

The Dismissal of the Community

God the Father, by whose glory Christ was raised from the dead, strengthen you to walk with him in his risen life, and the blessing of God almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be with you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Final Hymn

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

HE IS RISEN INDEED. ALLELUIA!

Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace. Alleluia. Alleluia!
Amen. We go in the name of Christ. Alleluia. Alleluia!
