These talks are for everyone but particularly those keen to hear how the Treaty is key to New Zealand's harmonious future. The series concludes with Living a Treaty-based future – a youth perspective at St Matthew's in Hastings on July 25.

Speakers at the youth night include Te Uranga Lee Belk and Piripi Winiata of Hastings firm Kawea Law, Layla Christison, a recent graduate of the University of Auckland Bachelor of Health Sciences who now works for Te Kura i Awarua Rangahau Māori Centre at EIT, and researcher Henry Lyons.

The Treaty & Me

Thanks to all of you who helped at The Treaty & Me talk on 27 June. It was very much appreciated. There were over 175 people in attendance, braving the wet and wintry weather to hear inspiring messages from Dennis O'Reilly and Mary Kippenberger.

Make a note in your diary to come along to the final talk in this series at St Matthew's on 25 July and bring a friend.

Manawatia a Matariki

Signified by the Matariki cluster of stars reappearing in our night sky, this is a time to reflect on the past year, celebrate the present, and plan for the year ahead.

Can you help?

Cherie Gilbertson has kindly volunteered her services as Calligrapher to the parish for over a decade now. We have recently found out that she no longer works at Paper Plus and we have no contact details for her. If you know Cherie or you know someone who is a skilled calligrapher and might be able and willing to fulfill this crucial voluntary role, we would love to hear from you.
